FIRE SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF NOVA SCOTIA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Truro, Nova Scotia, March 21, 2007 - Everyday firefighters from across this Province respond to emergency assistance requests. Firefighters normally don't look at themselves as heroes or doing acts of bravery, they provide assistance in bringing an emergency situation under control. With the introduction of the Bravery Bill (on Tuesday March 20th) by the Premier of Nova Scotia on behalf of Government of this Province it clearly indicates the MLA's of this Province are taking notice in recognizing the unselfish acts of firefighters / emergency service personnel for their line of duty commitments. The Fire Service Association of Nova Scotia applauds and appreciates the Government of Nova Scotia for their commitment in enacting the Bravery and Long Service medal awards to the Legislative floor for Bill passage.
