

Mark Your Calendars!

The 2018 FSANS Conference will be held - Saturday and Sunday, May 5th and 6th at the Holiday Inn, Prince St. Truro, NS

Theme- “Emergency Response & Dealing with the Unexpected”

The line up of speakers for the conference is exciting. Back by popular demand is Dr. Marnie Wood from the Medical Examiner’s Office, she is going to do a presentation on street drugs. Scott Hawkes from Public Safety & Field Communications will speak on TMR and the challenges at forest fires.

There will be a joint presentation by DNR on the forest fires down the South Shore of NS a few years ago and George Muise is going to do a presentation on dealing with the Flooding in Cape Breton. This is just a sample of the speakers and presentations, this is one conference you don’t want to miss.

Entertainment for the Saturday evening is being worked on but it’s sure not to disappoint. The Holiday Inn is once again offering the rate of $119.00 per night. Cost this year for registration is $100.00 and that will include your generous swag bag, all presentations, all meals served during the conference, including the Saturday night buffet, the entertainment, and a drink ticket at the cocktail hour.

We will also have excellent door prizes given out during the event. So again, mark your calendars, call the Holiday Inn now at \(902\) 895-1651 and ask for the FSANS rate of $119.00. Registration forms will be mailed out early in the New Year and in the meantime if you wish to register early contact Beth Edwards, Executive Director at admin@fsans.ns.ca Look forward to seeing you there!
